“MOTOR-VEHICLE ACT.”

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, under authority of the “Motor-vehicle Act,” chapter 195 of the “Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936,” and clause (j) of Regulation 3 of the regulations made thereunder, the following signalling device, specifications of which are attached hereto, be approved:—

“Sight” Direction Indicator, Model K.

G. S. WISMER,
Attorney-General.

Attorney-General's Department,
Victoria, B.C., November 22nd, 1940. 2088-de5

“FIRE MARSHAL ACT.”

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that, pursuant to the provisions of the “Fire Marshal Act,” the regulations governing the sale, installation, maintenance, and use of compressed-gas systems, made pursuant to the said Act by Order in Council No. 702, approved the 7th day of June, 1934, and published in the Gazette of June 14th, 1934, and amended by Order in Council No. 319, approved March 11th, 1938, be further amended as follows:—

1. By inserting at the end of the definition of “compressed-gas system,” in Regulation 1, the words “or for industrial purposes.”

2. By striking out Regulation 8, and substituting therefor the following:—

“8. The cylinders in use for domestic purposes, together with the regulating equipment therefor, shall be installed outside any building in accordance with the following table:—

Water Capacity per Container.	Minimum Distance
	Underground.	Above Ground.
Less than 125 gals.	10 feet	No distance.
125–500 gals.	10 feet	10 feet.
500–1,200 gals.	25 feet	25 feet.
Over 1,200 gals.	50 feet	50 feet.

“Cylinders shall be installed in such a manner that the discharge from the relief-valves shall be not less than five feet from any opening in a building below the level of the discharge; but if this is not practicable the Fire Marshal, on request in writing, may permit the installation to be made otherwise. Cylinders which cannot contain more than thirty pounds of compressed gas, and which are equipped with special approved fittings, may be attached to the building. Cylinders which can contain more than thirty pounds of compressed gas shall be set on a firm foundation, but if this is not practicable the Fire Marshal may permit the installation of the cylinders with the use of special fittings and flexible couplings.

"Nothing in the foregoing shall prohibit the cylinders and regulating-valves of a compressed-gas system being installed in a specially designed ventilated cabinet if so desired.

"Compressed-gas cylinders equipped with standard regulator equipment may be used for industrial purposes inside buildings, except where the building is open to the public. The building first must be approved by the local Assistant Fire Marshal."

G. S. WISMER,
Attorney-General.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

"PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Public Utilities Act" the following regulation was made by the Public Utilities Commission on the 26th day of November, 1940.

REGULATION 11.

A Regulation requiring the Filing of Schedules of Rates for Toll-bridges.

1. Every public utility which owns or operates in the Province of British Columbia equipment or facilities for the operation of a toll-bridge shall forthwith file with the Public Utilities Commission schedules showing all rates established by it and collected or enforced or to be collected or enforced. After the filing of such schedules, no additional or different rates shall be collected or enforced unless such rates are in accordance with a supplementary or amending schedule, and no such supplementary or amending schedule shall be filed without the consent of the Commission.

2. The schedule of rates to be filed as aforesaid may be in the form established by the public utility for its own purposes.

3. This regulation may be known and cited as "Regulation 11 of the Public Utilities Commission," and shall come into operation on the 9th day of December, 1940.

Dated at Victoria, B.C., this 26th day of November, 1940.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

[SEAL.] W. A. CARROTHERS,
2086-de5 Chairman.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

No. 17313.

NOTICE is hereby given that "Georgia Finance Co., Ltd.," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 21st day of November, 1940.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares of one hundred dollars each.

The address of its registered office is 309 Royal Bank Building, 675 Hastings Street West, Vancouver, B.C.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise, hold, own, buy, sell, mortgage, encumber, take, hire, lease, improve, and in every way deal and trade in every kind of property, whether real or personal, and wheresoever situate, including, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, bonds, stocks, or shares, debentures, mortgages, hypothecs, bills, notes, agreements for sale, conditional-sale agreements, warehouse receipts, lien notes, liens, or other similar property:

(b.) To carry on the business of brokers in all its branches whatsoever, and also the business of agents for loan and trust companies, agents for fire, life, accident, automobile, plate glass, and marine insurance companies, and agents for any other branch of the insurance business whatsoever:

(c.) To carry on the business of real-estate and personal estate agents and brokers, and all branches of the said business whatsoever:

(d.) Without in any way affecting the generality of the foregoing, to act as agents and brokers for any and all persons, firms, corporations, and estates who or which may now have loaned or invested, or which may at any time hereafter loan or invest, money on or in any and all kinds of securities, and to act as agents or attorneys for any persons, firms, corporations, or estates engaged in any branch of financial, industrial, or commercial business:

(e.) To furnish and provide deposits and funds required in relation to any tender or application for any contract, concession, decree, enactment, property, or privilege, or in relation to the carrying-out of any contract, concession, decree, or enactment:

(f.) To take and receive from any Government or person on deposit for safe-keeping and storage gold and silver plate, jewellery, money, stocks, securities, and other valuables and personal property; to rent out the use of safes and other receptacles, and generally to carry on business of a safe-deposit company:

(g.) To accumulate capital for any of the purposes of the Company, and to appropriate any of the Company's assets to specific purposes, either conditionally or unconditionally, and to admit any class or section of those who have any dealings with the Company to any share in the profits thereof, or in the profits of any particular branch of the Company's business, or to any other special rights, privileges, advantages, or benefits:

(h.) To lend money and negotiate loans; to draw, accept, endorse, discount, buy, sell, and deal in bills of exchange, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, coupons, and other negotiable instruments and securities; to issue on commission, subscribe for, buy, take, acquire, hold, sell, exchange, and deal in shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, or securities of any Government, authority, or company; to form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds; to acquire, improve, manage, work, develop, exercise all rights in respect of, lease, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, and otherwise deal with property of all kinds, and, in particular, land, buildings, concessions, patents, business concerns, and undertakings; to enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions; generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by capitalists, promoters, financiers, concessionaires, contractors for public and other works, merchants, and any other business whatsoever:

(i.) To acquire and take over by purchase, or otherwise in any way whatsoever, all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property, and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively, or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases, and, in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company), to pay for the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up:

(j.) To carry on business as general merchants and dealers in all manufactured goods, materials, provisions, and produce whatsoever:

(k.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies or societies anonymes for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company; to take or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(l.) To loan money upon the security of any and all kinds and descriptions of real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and particularly, but without affecting the generality of the foregoing, mortgages (whether first or subsequent) and agreements for sale of either real or personal property, stocks, shares, debentures, stocks and bonds, debentures, bonds, charter-parties, bills of exchange, bills of lading, deposit receipts, contracts, warrants, and any other negotiable or transferable interests, documents, or securities:

(m.) To amalgamate with any person or persons, or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company, or otherwise, and, for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another Company or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(n.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and, in particular, by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(o.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever: Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act," chapter 133, "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1936":

(p.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(q.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any part of the British Empire and (or) in any foreign country or place:

(r.) The word "company" in this memorandum when applied otherwise than to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereof and the powers granted by subsection (1) of section 22 of the "Companies Act" shall be regarded independently, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects and powers indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company), but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects and powers of a separate, distinct, and independent company.
